

The Leadership Conference
Education Fund

DIRECTIVE 15

Moving Forward

civilrights.org

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights is the nation's oldest, largest, and most diverse civil and human rights coalition and is committed to the protection and advancement of civil and human rights for every person in the United States. The Leadership Conference Education Fund complements this work by building public will for federal policies that promote and protect the civil and human rights of all people in America. Its campaigns empower and mobilize advocates around the country to push for progressive change in the United States. As a national coalition composed of a diverse group of organizations nationwide committed to civil and human rights, we value The Leadership Conference Education Fund's ability to convene forums for dynamic interaction and discussion in a manner that promotes civility and constructive public discourse.

The Leadership Conference Education Fund, the coalition, and its guests at all times will:

- Respect the diversity of perspectives offered by the coalition and guests;
- Observe professional decorum and courtesy to the coalition and guests;
- Not tolerate actions that limit expression, disrupt engagement, and express disrespect; and
- Not engage in any behavior that brings discredit to or negatively affects The Leadership Conference Education Fund and the coalition's reputation.

Thank you for ensuring that convenings hosted by The Leadership Conference Education Fund and the coalition are conducive to upholding our values of mutual respect and full equality for all.